Waldemere
Bridgeport, Connecticut

Mr. Frank Harper, Sec'y.
To Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, 287 4th Ave., New York City.

My dear Sir:-

I am writing you at the suggestion of Mr. Sanford Stoddard of Bridgeport, and Mr. McGraw, Sec'y. at the Progressive Headquarters in New York, to ask your good offices in behalf of the Contemporary Club of Bridgeport, of which I have the honor to be President.

The Contemporary Club is a literary club of this City, composed of one hundred and twentyfive of the leading gentlemen and ladies
