LEXINGTON, KY.

May 22, 1914.

Hon. Theodor Rosewart, Ogster Bay, 2.7.

Dear Si.

In common with Programines all over the United Otates, I am delighted at your return from the wieds. In fact, we are in the wilds here in the thetes and need a leader to show my then was not.

men of all political faiths are boting forward to an apportunity to orte for you again. The country is realizing that the pencer fellows are more flunties to their pears and trying to lead the plaple into the beatific attribute of the ostrick which permits the hunter to slip up on it.

It-is chaming to us old line Roosereturn, to hear the Democrate Take water on the arrention they so often made in The past, that
